

MOVES AND APPOINTMENTS

The Professional Mortgage Packagers Alliance (PMPA) has announced the appointment of a new chairman, Vic Jannels, one of the founding directors at its inception in July 2000.

Jannels has accepted the role following the retirement decision of the previous chairman, Ian Nelson, who has held the chair since PMPA was launched. Ian is CEO of Unity Homeloans, the lender formed by the founding directors of PMPA in late 2005, and feels that he wants to concentrate his efforts on the continued success and growth of Unity.

Jannels said, "I am delighted to accept the role of chairing the PMPA, building on the solid achievements of the past seven years."
